

Protecting the Great Lakes Forever

Sierra Club Rochester Regional Group's 15th Annual Environmental Forum

“Do not listen to those who say there is nothing you can do to the very real and large social and environmental issues of our time.”

- Maude Barlow

Thursday, April 25th | Forum

Monroe Community College
Theater, Bldg. 4

5:15pm: Networking and Exhibits

7-9pm: Keynote by Maude Barlow

Chair of the Council of Canadians and the Board of Washington-based Food and Water Watch, Maude Barlow has long been known for her crusade to protect fresh water in the Great Lakes region. Maude has written 16 books, including her highly-acclaimed book, “Blue Covenant: The Global Water Crisis and the Coming Battle for the Right to Water.”

Free and Open to the Public (donations welcome)

Friday, April 26th | Workshops

Rochester Institute of Technology | Louise Slaughter Bldg. (SLA)

9am: Plenary with Maude Barlow and Jim Olson of FLOW, then choose:

Track 1, 10:30am: The Commons and the Public Trust - use these tools to protect our local waters ($15 includes lunch)

Track 2, 12:00pm: Water Steward Leadership Summit - students only, pizza provided, free! (Students can attend AM session of Track 1 or 3)

Track 3, 10:30am: Do It Yourself! Rain gardens, permaculture, non-toxic home products and more ($15 includes lunch)

Registration Required: <http://qrs.ly/io31svn>

To leave us a message: 585-234-1056

